

Appendix 1. List of persons entitled or possibly entitled to compensation

The blue colour marks the properties to be acquired for the purposes of the Investment Project, for which the entitlement to compensation will arise after issuing the decision setting the amount of compensation, that is within 30 days from the date the RCC became final.

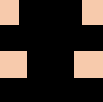

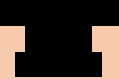

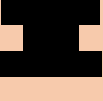

The green colour marks the property for which the Investor has obtained an application for purchase in accordance with Article 124(5) of the RPM Law in conjunction with Article 11f(2) of the Road Act.

The orange colour marks the properties located within the impact range of the Investment Project, which will be restricted in use and for which the right to receive compensation will arise upon the issue of the RCC specifying the manner of using the property, if the person entitled applies for the purchase of the entire property pursuant to Article 124(5) of the RPM Law in conjunction with Article 11f(2) of the Road Act.

The grey colour marks the PAP whom the project may potentially affect and who will be monitored for impact. This PAP will receive non-financial compensatory measures (see more in LA&RAP, Chapter 4.2.3. Impacts on other entities).
